Faculty Club Luncheon

Professing Knowledge

A conversation with
John Rowan, Philosophy & Shawn Slavin, Physics

Sage? Dictator? Coach?

Discovering knowledge? Sharing truths?

From evolution and genetics, to the free market, war and politics, race and gender, the cosmos and ecology—how should faculty “profess” their expertise? As neutral arbiter, Socratic guide, proselytizing preacher....

Join us for a conversation on the role of the educator in the classroom.
