

ASSESSMENT!

What is it?
Why do it?
How can it be done?

Faculty Roundtable

2:30 PM

Tuesday, October 25

Alumni Hall

This roundtable is an opening discussion among faculty about teaching and learning assessment. Facilitated by the Center for Instructional Excellence, the roundtable will provide an opportunity for an open and frank dialogue on the complex issues of assessment. All faculty are invited to join in directing and designing means and methods for expanding teaching excellence at Purdue University Calumet. The time for discussion is now! Please come and share your experiences, your insights, and your concerns.

Light refreshments will be provided
RSVP via registration at the CIE website or call Terri Chance @ 989-2925

For more information contact:
Dr. Lee Artz, Director, Center for Instructional Excellence, 156 CLO, 989-3264, artz@calumet.purdue.edu