

Study Abroad in London Spring Break 2007

ENGLISH 412 & COM 491 - British Theatre & Culture

English 412 & Com 491 introduce a new twist to the study of GENRE. Immerse yourself in the study of British culture, theatre history, and performance practices during the spring semester & enjoy a 7-day stint of Experiential Learning in London.

Scholarships available for HONORS Students & COM Majors

Site visits and shows at

- ◆ Drury Lane Theatre
- ◆ The Old Vic
- ◆ The Olivier
- ◆ The Cottesloe
- ◆ The Lyttelton
- ◆ Shakespeare's Globe Theatre
- ◆ The British Library

Travel Cost for Each Student:
$1,325

Includes:

- ◆ Roundtrip Airfare
- ◆ Accommodation
- ◆ Breakfast
- ◆ Theatre Tickets

$700 non-refundable fee
due by January 12, 2007

For program details, contact Dr. Mita Choudhury, Dept. of English and Philosophy, choudhur@calumet.purdue.edu or at (219) 989-2262.

Sponsored by, The Center for International Programs,
The Honors Program, The Department of Communication, &
The Department of English and Philosophy